

Seaside practice scoops award

A Somerset dental practice has been rewarded for its excellence with a BDA Good Practice Award.

College Street Dental Practice, in Burnham-on-Sea in Somerset, has been working towards the award for the past 18 months with retreat days, staff meetings, attending courses and just plain hard work to ensure that they are able to provide their patients with an excellent care experience.

The 10-point Good Practice Scheme recognises consistently good treatment, high quality patient care, continuing professional development of staff, and rewards the efforts of the whole dental team.

The celebrations were attended by patients and staff, past and present, as well as the local Mayor Michael Clarke and his wife Mayoress Maria Clarke. The award was presented by Tessa Munt MP.

In his celebration speech, Colin Taylor, one of the practice partners, thanked all who attended, praising the hard work and exemplary attitude of the practice staff, as well as including a special mention for Andrew

The celebrations at the practice were well attended

Warren, director of DPAS, supported the practice for the company having many years.